

Kingsley Hill
Freeman Clarke

Kingsley brings 30 years of experience to Freeman Clarke in technical and general management in firms both large and public and small and entrepreneurial. Kingsley is the Managing Partner responsible for Northern New Jersey in our recently expanded US initiative. Kingsley has served as CTO, CIO, COO, and CEO of a number of firms around the world. He takes on every new role as if he is an owner, doing what is best for his employer/client. Further he sees the personnel development of his team as a prime directive; "one person can do a lot, but a well led team can do a lot more.
