

Biography

Frank Turner is a seasoned financial executive with significant experience in portfolio management, capital markets, and corporate restructuring. In his thirty-year career on Wall Street, Mr. Turner has led a variety of corporate debt restructurings totaling more than $12 billion; executed over $25 billion in leveraged loan and high-yield bond transactions; and has managed a $6 billion leverage loan portfolio.

His turnaround transactional experience encompasses both in and out-of-court restructurings, developing plan of reorganizations and communication strategies, leading DIP and exit financings, arranging equity rights offerings, negotiating debt-to-equity exchanges, selling, and liquidating companies, and recruiting new board of directors and management teams. Mr. Turner has successfully negotiated with private equity investors, subordinated and second lien debt holders, and commercial and asset-based lenders.

Mr. Turner is a Certified Turnaround Professional, a board member of the New Jersey - Turnaround Management Association, member of the New York Institute of Credit and the American Bankruptcy Institute. He has spoken on panels concerning conflict of interests and the responsibility of boards when companies are in the 'zone of insolvency'. He has an MBA from Purdue University and an BA in Economics from Westminster College.
