

ACG Minnesota Cup Case Competition

The ACG Cup is a unique case study competition designed to give students from leading undergraduate and MBA programs invaluable insights into mergers & acquisitions, investment banking, financial advisory and private equity.

Student teams are given a real-life case prepared by ACG finance professionals. The case study will be 15-20 pages on a business issue/problem that the students must analyze and then provide recommendations on valuation, capital markets, and M&A advice to a panel of investment professionals from the Minneapolis area. The purpose of the competition is to give students real-life experience in mergers and acquisitions, investment banking, private equity and strategic alternatives. The competition also gives students a great opportunity to showcase their professional and academic skills

- Students will work in teams of 3-5.
 - Teams may comprise any mix of undergraduate and graduate students.
- Teams will receive the case two weeks prior to the competition date for round 1 and round 2.
- Presentations will be 15 minutes with a 5 minute Q&A and can include PowerPoint and handouts for the judges.
- The judges include local finance professionals in investment banking, private equity and debt.
- Winning teams will receive monetary awards and the resumes of all teams will be provided for the judges and employer sponsors.

Benefits to participating students:

- Interact and network with leading finance professionals and organizations in the community
- Gain insight into the inner workings of corporate finance through a variety of transaction perspectives
- Develop relationships with potential employers and mentors
- Win cash rewards

Competition will be held on a single day, consisting of several rounds.
