July CES Breakfast Culture Counts-Developing & Sustaining a Desirable Workplace

You've heard it over and over, especially in today's competitive hiring environment: Culture Counts. In short, culture is your company's personality. It surrounds an employee at all times, and is constantly shaped by your staff. While it can't be measured, it's equally as important as any other metric currently on your dashboard. If it's not-so-great, you'll feel it and so will all of your employees. They crave a positive, productive environment.

Create a happier workplace and your bottom line will be just as happy as your employees! Join us to hear directly from some of Denver's most successful CEOs what they are doing to build and sustain an attractive internal culture. Learn more and register.

Attendance Requirement: These events are exclusively for business owners and C-level executives of operating companies with annual revenue greater than $5M. ACG Denver members from financial services, professional services and other advisory firms may attend if they register with one qualified C-level guest.
