2019 L20 Nominations Now Open

Leadership 20, a seven-session leadership development course that takes place in the fall of each year, is accepting nominations for the Class of 2019 from now until Friday, June 14. The cost for the program which runs from September 10 through November 12 is $1,850.

Emerging leaders within ACG Denver's professional business community may self-nominate or be nominated by others. Each session is designed to be interactive, fun and practice-based. Participants will be able to immediately apply what they learn to everyday business situations. Read more and nominate.

University of Denver Wins ACG Cup

The University of Denver took first place in the 2019 ACG Cup®, an inter-collegiate competition among students from regional business schools to demonstrate their abilities and insights into mergers and acquisition. Taking place on April 27, members of the winning team included Gustavo Nungaray, Georgina Ryder and Jackson Parks.

Judges for the event included Thomas Dutzer (Kentwood Real Estate), John Genell (Grant Thornton), David Harper (Sunflower Bank), Justin Vaughn (Lathrop Gage) and Corey Weldon (NANA WorleyParsons). A special thank you to judge and 2019 ACG Cup Sponsor Eric Mattson of Excellere Partners and our 2019 Chair, Jeremy Putka of P2Pinvestor.

ACG Denver Hiring Executive Assistant

ACG Denver is looking for a dynamic, organized, driving, self-starter to contribute to our long-term growth and success in the full-time role of Executive Assistant to the Executive Director. The Executive Assistant will be responsible for a wide range of projects and administration while learning the ropes of association management. Read more and apply.

Board Nominations Wanted

As ACG Denver continues to evolve, we want to make sure our Board remains fresh, relevant and strategically aligned with the marketplace. We are seeking individuals to uphold the level of professionalism and dedication required of the ACG Denver Board, and also those who would benefit from being a Board member.

Board terms become effective September 1 and are effective for three years, with an option to renew for a second term. Individuals may also self-nominate. Click here to submit your nomination by Thursday, May 30.
