

Karen A. Artasanchez
Shareholder
WilkinGuttenplan

Karen A. Artasanchez, a Shareholder at WilkinGuttenplan has more than 30 years of public accounting experience. A partner in the tax department, she has extensive expertise in providing high-level tax consulting, strategic planning and compliance services to closely-held businesses and their owners. Her clients include emerging and established businesses in the manufacturing, life sciences and pharma, professional service, real estate, technology, and food service industries. She has represented her clients at both federal and state level tax examinations. Karen is part of the firm's International Tax Group and has experience dealing with multi-national businesses in Asia, Latin America and Europe. She has helped her clients manage the complex tax compliance requirements that stem from having a foreign affiliate. Karen has also developed an expertise in the mergers and acquisition area. She has worked with clients on both the buy-side and sell-side and is often called upon to help structure transactions, analyze the tax implications of a transaction, as well as run due diligence processes.