

Philip P. Crowley
Managing Partner
Law Office of Philip P. Crowley LLC

Phil Crowley is an Angel investor and lawyer with several decades of experience helping technology firms seize opportunities and avoid expensive legal errors as they make ideas happen. He served as corporate counsel for healthcare giant Johnson & Johnson for over 30 years negotiating and structuring transactions with technology-based companies. Phil has served on the Board of Trustees of Stevens Institute of Technology in Hoboken for 25 years involved in supporting efforts to transition academic technology to commercialization.

He holds a B.S. in physics from Stevens, an M.S. in experimental physics from Harvard University and a J.D. from the Columbia Law School. See <https://crowleylawllc.com>