

Refer a New Member Rules & Regulations

- This program is open to all ACG members in good standing. To receive credit for a new ACG Boston member, the referring member must fill out and submit the form below, and the referral must submit a Membership Application to ACG Boston.
- In order to be considered a new member, the individual must not have been an active member in ACG Boston for 24 months or longer.
- A new member is officially credited to the referring member when an accepted membership application and dues have been received and processed by ACG Boston.
- The Membership Referral Program runs year-round.
- Program rules and rewards are subject to change. No purchase necessary to enter or win. All federal, state, and local laws apply. Void where prohibited.