

Stephen King Bio

Stephen King, CPA, is the President and CEO of GrowthForce, a market leader in the client accounting services industry, providing cloud-based bookkeeping, accounting and controller services for service businesses and nonprofits. Before opening GrowthForce, Stephen was President of Insperity Financial Management Services division for two years. The division was created from the acquisition of a business called Virtual Growth Incorporated, which Steve founded in 1995 in New York City. Before Virtual Growth, Steve spent seven years working for Amnesty International USA. There, he managed the organization's tremendous growth as its CFO and then honed his fundraising skills as its chief development officer- raising over $20M a year.