ACG Cleveland Board Member Receives ACG Global's 2017 Meritorious Service Award
Award Recipient Theodore Wagner recognized at InterGrowth 2017

CLEVELAND – April 10, 2017 – The Association for Corporate Growth (ACG), a global organization focused on driving middle-market growth, has announced that ACG Cleveland board member, Theodore “Tod” Wagner, is a recipient of the prestigious 2017 Meritorious Service Award. Wagner, along with other 2017 award recipients, will be recognized at InterGrowth® 2017 on April 25th at the ARIA Hotel in Las Vegas. The Meritorious Service Award is given to ACG members who have provided distinguished volunteer service and leadership.

As managing partner of the Cleveland Office at Bober Markey Fedorovich, an Ohio-based CPA and business advisory firm, Wagner delivers high-level advisory services to the firm’s middle market businesses and their owners in the areas of corporate and individual tax planning. He also works with high net worth family groups and family offices in aligning their personal, financial, charitable, legacy and business succession goals, and provides representation before taxing authorities. With over 25 years of experience, Wagner has extensive expertise with mergers and acquisitions creating value for clients through innovative transaction structuring, tax diligence, business valuation and negotiation of deal terms. Prior to joining BMF, Wagner served with a large international firm and a Cleveland-based firm before its merger with BMF in 2014. Maintaining a high level of involvement in the nonprofit and civic communities, Wagner currently serves as a board member and past president of ACG Cleveland. He received his bachelor’s degree in accounting from Miami University.

"These winners exemplify the very essence of ACG’s mission of Driving Middle-Market Growth here and around the world," said Jason Brown, 2017 ACG Global chairman and partner, Victory Park Capital Advisors. "Spotlighting their commitment to the association and the middle-market industry as a whole with these awards is but a token of ACG’s appreciation for all that they do year-round."
